

A One Minute Meditation from Pastor Bill Johnson

Did you ever think that you had drifted too far away from God to go back? After being out of the church for a long time, that's how I felt. I felt unworthy to be in church with the good people there. I didn't really believe that God wanted me back. Then I went to the funeral of my best friend's son. I was longing to hear the pastor say, "I am convinced that nothing in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord." I understood that to mean that even my turning my back on God did not make God stop loving me. I went back to church and experienced for the first time the joy of God's love for me. If you have been feeling separated from God, go back to church. Try ours, if you like. You can experience the joy of God's acceptance and love.
